5 AAC 01.610. Fishing seasons.

JUSTIFICATION:

As of June 18, a total of 240,282 salmon were counted past the Miles Lake sonar. The preseason projection for this date was 333,896 salmon, which results in a deficit of 93,614 salmon or 28% from expected. Copper River sockeye salmon have a sustainable escapement goal (SEG) of 360,000 – 750,000 fish (5AAC 24.360). Final sockeye salmon spawning escapement is expected to range between 310,000 and 390,000 fish depending on actual run entry timing. Due to the uncertainty of achieving the Copper River sockeye salmon lower bound escapement goal of 360,000 fish, fishing time and harvest potential will be reduced by restricting the Glennallen Subdistrict fishery to a single 48-hour fishing period each week through the remainder of sockeye salmon run.

The department will reevaluate the sonar passage each week and may add additional time to the weekly openings if sonar passage improves or may take further restrictions if sonar counts decline. Regardless of sonar passage, the Glennallen Subdistrict subsistence fishery will reopen by emergency order beginning September 1, to allow for the harvest of coho salmon.
